For Immediate Release

John Zink Company Opens Shanghai Office

TULSA, Okla., June 28, 2006 – John Zink Company, LLC, a global leader in developing state-of-the-art combustion technologies and environmental solutions, announces the opening of its newest regional office located in Shanghai, China. The action was driven by evolving market conditions, and will enable the company to respond to the Asia Pacific market more efficiently.

John Zink’s Shanghai office will be staffed with bilingual employees that are familiar with the industry and local customs in China. Customers will have greater access to John Zink’s resources, and immediate assistance with equipment without having to worry about translation or time zones.

“John Zink is proud to open a regional office in Shanghai,” said Ashok Patel, vice president of Asia Pacific operations at John Zink Company. “As more projects are executed out of China, John Zink’s Shanghai office will provide the same level of support our customers have come to expect from our other offices around the world.”

Effective immediately, questions about John Zink products and services in China should be directed to its Shanghai office. Please direct queries to the following:
